     Defendant.   :   MOTION   FOR TEMPORARY PROTECTION
                                      :   ORDER (REV. CODE SEC. 2919.25, 2919.15)

The complainant in the above-captioned case moves the court to issue a temporary protection order containing terms designed to ensure the safety and protection of the complainant and other family or household members, in relation to the named defendant pursuant to its authority to issue such an order under Section 2919.26 of the Ohio Revised Code.

A complaint, a copy of which has been attached to this motion, has been filed in this court charging the named defendant with knowingly causing or attempting to cause physical harm to a family or household member, recklessly causing serious physical harm to a family or household member, or by threat of force, knowingly causing a family or household member to believe that he would cause imminent physical harm to that family or household member, which constitutes Domestic Violence, a violation of Section 2919.25 of the Ohio Revised Code; charging the named defendant with Felonious Assault, Aggravated Assault, or Assault involving a family or household member, which are violations of Sections 2903.11, 2903.12, and 2903.13 of the Ohio Revised Code respectively; or charging the named defendant with Menacing by Stalking or Aggravated Trespass, which are violations of 2903.211 and 2911.211 of the Ohio Revised Code respectively.

I understand that I must appear before the court, at a time set by the court within twenty-four hours after the filing of this motion, for a hearing on said motion, and that any temporary protection order granted pursuant to this motion is a pre-trial condition of release and is effective only until the disposition of the criminal proceeding arising out of the attached complaint, or the issuance of a civil protection order or the approval of a consent agreement, arising out of the same activities as those that were the basis of the complaint, under Section 3113.31 of the Ohio Revised Code.
